

Eye Manifestations of Lupus and Sjogren's Syndrome

By: Dr. Kevin Wade

In this article, Dr. Wade focuses on dry eye syndrome and sjogren's syndrome in people with lupus. He lists a variety of other eye complications that manifest with sjogren's syndrome and provides details on their symptoms. He also provides suggestions of management options, including surgery and the application of artificial tear. At the conclusion of the article Dr. Wade provides a list of symptomatic conditions which require immediate medical attention.