

Other Conditions Seen In Lupus

Lupus Fact Sheet

This article outlines conditions that may occur in conjunction with lupus. The three of focus are Raynaud's phenomenon, Sjogren's syndrome and gastrointestinal problems. Each of these conditions are detailed with their associated symptoms, diagnosis and management options. This article provides the necessary information to understand these related conditions, so that they may be properly treated.