

Moderator: What support is available to help parents of children dealing with lupus?

Dr Tucker: Lots in BC. Our clinic provides support by seeing a pediatric rheumatologist, a nurse, social workers, a pediatric physiotherapist and an occupational therapist. Occupational therapists help deal with the issue of school. She may call the school or make a school visit. Also there are camp opportunities.